

Lord Only Knows

Words and music by Laura Hall ©2006

Lord only knows
The beauty of
The waiting flower
In each unopened bud
Every leaf and every vine
In its own time

Lord only knows
My hidden heart
And all the ways I've
Fallen apart
Lord knows the promise
Hidden in me
That I can't yet see

It is the promise of renewal
The good Lord always keeps
It is the blessing that lies waiting
In my garden fast asleep

Lord only knows
The mysteries
Coiled in each bud
On every tree
The sun will melt
The winter snow
Lord only knows

No matter what you or I do
No matter how we come unglued
Spring will come and we will be renewed

The sun will melt
The winter snow
Lord only knows
Lord only knows
