

This is my Dream

Words and music by Laura Hall

I wrote this for the Dream On Sister's compilation cd. I was asked to write about what women hoped and dreamed for the future, this is what came out.

This is my dream, of a place
Where God's love is reflected in every single face
This is my prayer, for a day
When everyone is cared for and none get thrown away
This is my dream, this is my prayer
This is my dream, this is my prayer

Now is the moment
Here is the place
May all of God's children
Feel His loving embrace
This is my dream, this is my prayer
This is my dream, this is my prayer

This is my dream, of a land
Where differences are strengths and we all walk hand in hand
This is my prayer, for a peace
That has the strength to last for all eternity
This is my dream, this is my prayer
This is my dream, this is my prayer

Now is the moment
Here is the place
May all the things we say and do
Resonate with our faith
This is our dream, this is our prayer
This is our dream, this is our prayer
This is our dream, this is our prayer
